

FFA Alumni Chapter Display Contest Evaluation Form

This contest is designed to encourage affiliates to develop and utilize a recruitment and promotional display to use in local community events. It is intended to be a representation of the chapter and its accomplishments.

The display should be constructed on a tri fold board not to exceed 36" X 48". Suggested items to include on the display are pictures of affiliate members in their local setting, FFA Alumni activities, news stories about affiliate activities and members, recruitment materials and other items that represent the affiliate. Only one display per affiliate may be entered.

Factors that will be considered in evaluation include usefulness as a recruitment tool, support of the local FFA chapter, and overall appearance.

Displays will be exhibited and judged during the Georgia FFA & FFA Alumni Convention in Macon, Ga.
